

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

Our course is aimed towards providing staff with a working knowledge of the processes involved in Equality, Diversity and Inclusion in line with regulations.

Key components include:

- Identify rights and responsibilities?
- Explain what Equality means
- Explain what Diversity means
- To identify the Legislation relevant to Equality and Diversity
- To recognise how discrimination can affect someone's life
- Reporting procedures / Whistleblowing policy
- Religious and Secular beliefs
- Respect

Learners are encouraged to share their existing knowledge of EDI procedures and an overview is given on the Protected Characteristics, rights and responsibilities. Supporting them in their understanding and reporting procedures within the workplace.

At the close of the session learners will complete a short written assessment to confirm that learning has taken place.